INDIALANTIC, FL - PIPELINE TELECOM expands International Sales and Marketing Team, August 30, 2010. Pipeline Telecom Inc., an FCC licensed International wholesale phone company, has named Zander Carraway as its new Director of International Business Relations. Mr. Carraway will spearhead the expansion of Pipeline's growth initiatives in Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Mr. Carraway, an original co-founder of Pipeline, re-joins Pipeline after 5 years as Sales Manager with Novartis Pharmaceuticals. In addition to managing and increasing Pipeline's international business, he provides a wealth of experience and industry knowledge. "Having Zander back with Pipeline is a great asset at a great time for both our team and Bi-lateral partners. He's a proven asset and we're delighted to have him back," stated Lance Littlejohn, Chief Operating Officer of Pipeline.

"The expansion of our international focus will further increase our ability to meet the needs of our customers," noted Littlejohn. "Zander Carraway's comprehensive understanding of the international telecom market will greatly benefit Pipeline, our sales network, and our customers."

Before joining Pipeline, Mr. Carraway managed a sales team for Novartis Pharmaceuticals, where he was responsible for a $20M book of business. Prior to Novartis, Mr. Carraway spent 10 years with a Top 100 wholesale telecom carrier in charge of Telecom Carrier Sales.

Mr. Carraway has a B.A. degree from Auburn University, in Communications.
